4.00 Green Diary

(A Diary on Environment related activities to be maintained compulsorily by the students of Pub Kamrup College)

Environmental study is offered in the college as an integral subject of the university curriculum. What the College innovatively adds is compulsory maintenance of a 'Green Diary' since 2012-13 by every student under which each student has to plant atleast three saplings in his/ her homestead and has to maintain the record of nurturing the same, and other environmental activities done by him/ her during the course hours. The 'Green Diary' is evaluated annually and in BA/ BSc 4th semester , this diary becomes a partial fulfillment of their project work in environmental studies evaluated for 10 marks assigned in the syllabus. Moreover the college rewards the best student at the end of the academic session for excellence shown in maintaining Green Diary as well as the saplings planted. This is a humble effort for promotion of environmental awareness among the students.

10.00 Under Graduate Choice Based Credit System (UG CBCS)

10.01 Introduction:

The affiliating university- Gauhati University vide its letter GU/Acad/716- 1126 dated 07/03/19 communicated all its affiliated colleges about implementation of CBCS at the under graduate level from the session 2019-20. Accordingly all under graduate programs such as B.A., B.Sc., B.Com. and B.Voc. degrees will have to follow CBCS system from this session. Such programs already taught in semester system, after being endowed with CBCS will be known as CBCS semester system.

The under graduate programs will be in the same three year (six semester) format with certain innovative and up-to-date teaching-learning practices, academic vistas and administrative patterns. A typical semester will comprise a minimum of 15 to 18 weeks of academic work that will translate into 90 actual teaching days. Two consecutive (one odd and one even) semesters will make up an academic year. An UG course shall be of Six Semesters covering three years.

Calendar Years:

Academic Sessions – June to May).

Odd Semesters (First, Third and Fifth) : ‘June to November’

Even Semesters (Second, Fourth and Sixth): ‘December to May’.

10.02 Nomenclature:

i. Credit : A unit by which course work is measured. It determines the number of hours of instructions required per week. One credit is equivalent to one hour of teaching/tutorial or two hours of practical per week.

1 Credit = 1 Theory period of one hour duration/ 1 Tutorial period of one hour duration/ 1 Practical period of two hour duration

ii. Honours Course: Traditional ‘Major Course’ of undergraduate programmes has been renamed as Honours Course in CBCS pattern.

iii. Core Course: All ‘Core’ courses are compulsory in nature.

‘C’ in Honours course Programme Template stands for ‘Core Course’ (known as Major subject in non-CBCS B.A./B.Sc./B.Voc programmes). Hence C1, C2, C3...C14 in CBCS pattern are applied to mean Major subject: Paper:1, Paper:2, Paper :3... Paper:14 of non-CBCS programmes respectively.

iv. Discipline Specific Core Course (DSC) of certain credits will be there in Regular Courses under CBCS. This abbreviation stands for the main subjects a student of a Regular Course opts for. The alphabetical denomination suffixed to DSC (ex.DSC-A) refers to such a specific subject; finally this course after being endowed with a numerical denomination (ex.DSC-1A) will mean a particular course/paper in that course/subject.

v. Discipline Specific Elective Course : An Elective Course which is offered by the main discipline. The discipline related elective courses that are interdisciplinary in nature.

vi. Generic Elective Course : A Generic Elective Course is offered by an unrelated discipline and has the objective of broadening the academic experience of a student.

vii. Ability Enhancement courses: Ability Enhancement Courses which are to be taken up by students in an undergraduate degree program will be of two types:

- ~ Ability Enhancement Compulsory Courses
- ~ Skill Enhancement Courses

viii. Regular Course: ‘Pass Course’/ ‘General Course’ under non-CBCS has been renamed as Regular Course in CBCS pattern.
