Analysis and Action Taken: Pub Kamrup College went to feedback taking in online mode for the first time. Participation of the students was though not encouraging, it opened up a new vista in transforming students from traditional/manual set-up to online mode giving scope for the students to acquire knowledge technology.

Teachers were invited to see their feedbacks by the coordinator of IQAC. They were given to ruminate over their shortcomings or about the scope they can avail for improvement in teaching-learning.
